Marc Haestier joins GTT as Chief Financial Officer

Paris – January 2, 2017. Marc Haestier joins GTT as Chief Financial Officer.

Philippe Berterottière, Chairman and Chief Executive Officer of GTT, has commented: “We are glad to welcome Marc in GTT’s executive team. His extensive experience of the financial function, acquired within a number of industrial groups, will be of great help to us in order to support GTT ambitions.”

Marc Haestier leaves Engie where he has been, since 2010, CFO of the Infrastructures Business Line. He began his career holding various financial positions within Arjo Wiggins between 1985 and 1997, in Belgium and subsequently in the United Kingdom, before joining Alstom in Paris in 1997 as Director of Treasury and Financing. He then moved to Gaz de France in 2004 as Deputy CFO.

He holds a Degree in Applied Economics and a MBA from the University of Louvain.

About GTT

GTT (Gaztransport & Technigaz) is the designer of containment systems with cryogenic membranes used to transport and store liquefied gas, and in particular, LNG (Liquefied Natural Gas). For over 50 years, GTT has been designing and offering to its customers technologies which allow them to optimise storage space and reduce the construction and operating costs of ships or tanks equipped with these systems. The liquefied gas market includes several types of vessels: LNG carriers, FSRUs (Floating Storage Regasification Units), FLNGs (Floating Liquefied Natural Gas vessels) and multi-gas carriers (in particular for ethane and LPG). The company also provides solutions dedicated to onshore storage and to the use of LNG as fuel for vessel propulsion (and associated bunkering), as well as a broad range of high added value services for all stakeholders throughout the liquefied gas chain.
